

SAINT APOTHECARY'S
EVIL BONE WATER

— Zheng Xie Gu Shui —

#1 Traditional Chinese Medicine
Herbal Liniment in America

All Natural, Fast absorbing, Imperial-grade
herbal ingredients

Supports muscles, joints, sprains, cuts, & everyday aches

Trusted by over 2,800 acupuncture clinics around the world

Over 600,000 bottles sold

"When in doubt, put Evil Bone Water on it."

Ask your clinic staff about the many ways to use
Evil Bone Water.

Ingredients:

- Zhang Nao (Natural Camphor)
- Bo He Nao (Natural Menthol)
- Gui Pi (Cinnamon Bark)
- Hu Zhang (Japanese Knotweed)
- E Zhu (Zedoary)
- Bai Zhi (Angelica)
- Ji Gu Xiang (Croton)
- Qian Jin Ba (Flemingia Root)
- Bai Niu Dan (Elecampane)
- San Qi (Ginseng)
- High Quality Alcohol*
- Quality-Treated Water

Common Uses:

- Incidental Injuries (particularly sports injuries)
- Joint Pain
- Spinal Pain
- Muscle & Ligament Pain
- Bruising
- Sprains
- General Pain
- Cuts & Insect Bites
- Infection
- Burns
- Inflammation
- First Aid

How to use:

- Apply directly to the affected area.
- Rub into the skin until absorbed.
- Use 2-4 times daily, or as needed.
- Wash hands after application if desired.

Tip: The solution will stain, so be cautious of where it comes in contact.

FAQ's:

• Who makes Evil Bone Water?

Evil Bone Water is handcrafted by our Master Herbalist, Dr. Mark T. Brinsor

• How often can EBW be applied?

Apply as needed, typically 2-4 times daily.

• Can EBW be used on open wounds?

Yes, for minor cuts, scrapes, and abrasions. It is very safe due to its relatively low Camphor percentages.

*Caution: Flammable

727-498-1183

SAINT
APOTHECARY

www.evilmbonewater.com

team@evilmbonewater.com